

MONDAY, 9 JULY 2018

8.30 – 9.00	REGISTRATION: COLLEGIUM NOVUM
9.00-9.30	OPENING AND WELCOME Prof. dr hab. Katarzyna Dziubalska-Kořaczyk, Dean of the Faculty of English The Honorable Dr Gerard Keown, Ambassador of Ireland in Poland
9.30-10.30	Plenary lecture: Dr Anthony Harvey (Royal Irish Academy) The Case of the Hidden Hazel Trees: Ghost-Busting and Word-Finding in Celtic Lexicography [Chair: Michael Hornsby, room C1]
10.30-11.00	COFFEE BREAK
	Session 1: Literary translations between Welsh and Slavic Languages [Chair: Katarzyna Jędrzejewska-Pyszczyk, room C1]	Session 2: Celtic Studies (1) [Chair: Daniel Melia, room C3]
11.00-11.30	Samuel Jones: ‘Absorbing the nourishment of Continental treasures’: T. Hudson-Williams, Chekhov and the Welsh drama.	Jonathan Wooding: Literary Evidence for Seafaring in Celtic Britain and Ireland, c. 400-1100
11.30-12.00	Karolina Rosiak Literary translations from Polish to Welsh – An Overview.	Dmitri Glass ‘Regis Gothorum’: a Continental source of the Martyrology of Tallaght.
12.00-12.30	Marta Listewnik “An exotic yet familiar place”: translational strategies adopted in the Polish translation of Caradog Prichard’s Un Nos Ola Leuad and the novel’s reception in Poland.	Cameron Wachowich An Irish Orosius? Tracing the impact of the Historiae adversus Paganos in medieval Irish legendary history
12.30-14.00	LUNCH BREAK
	Session 1: Celtic literatures [Chair: Katarzyna Jędrzejewska-Pyszczyk, room C1]	Session 2: Celtic languages (1) [Chair: Marta Listewnik, room C3]
14.00-14.30	Doris Edel The Acallam na Senórach: a plea for cultural integration.	Donald Morrison Ness Gaelic vowels and the broad/slender contrast
14.30-15.00	Daniel Melia Legendary Politics in the Mabinogi	Ken George What happened to Primitive Cornish /ɪ/ when long in closed syllables?
15.00-15.30	Dara Hellman Where the law is uncertain, there is no law: the symbiosis of proverb and law in Gereint vab Erbin	Eugene McKendry New Proposals for Policy Developments in Irish and Foreign Languages Education in Ireland
15.30-16.00	Nathaniel Harrington “Luathas-teichidh”: Escapism and Gaelic genre fiction	Mélanie Joutteau Typology of new speakers in a heritage language
16.00-16.30	COFFEE BREAK
	Session 1: Language Rights and Language Activism [Chair: Maggie Bonsey, room C1]	Session 2: History / Diasporas [Chair: Anthony Harvey, room C3]
16.30-17.00	Nicole Dołowy-Rybińska Young Welsh language activists: personal junctures and types of campaigning	William Mulligan The Irish Language in the Diaspora: Survival of Irish Language Use in the Michigan Copper Country
17.00-17.30	Katarzyna Gmerek Shane Leslie and the Irish support for language struggle in Poland	Rozenn Milin Wooden clog, Welsh Not and tally stick. From humiliation to the abandonment of mother tongue.
17.30-18.00	Martina Reiterová The Discourse Strategies of the Breton Regionalists around 1900
19.00	CONFERENCE DINNER AT (TBA)

TUESDAY, 10 JULY 2018

10.30-11.30	Plenary lecture: Dr Elin Haf Gruffydd Jones (Aberystwyth University) The persistence and permeability of minoritised languages: exploring future relationships between territory and technology [Chair: Karolina Rosiak, room C1]
11.30-12.00	COFFEE BREAK
	Session 1: Tweets, 'likes' and posts in minority language context [Chair: Elin Haf Gruffydd Jones, room C1]
12.00-12.30	Maggie Bonsey Language promotion on the internet: an examination of Irish speakers on Twitter
12.30-13.00	Merryn Davies-Deacon Standard and non-standard Breton on Facebook
13.00-13.30	Piotr Szczepankiewicz Authenticity of Cornish as seen in forum posts – 2005-2013.
13.30-14.00	Guillem Belmar Viernes New Technologies are not the enemy: the opportunities Social Media offer Minority Languages, from the perspective of the #europeminoritylanguages Project
14.30-15.30	LUNCH BREAK
	Session 1: Welsh linguistics [Chair: Marta Listewnik, room C1 ]
15.30-16.00	Júda Ronén Wyddoch-Chi-Pwy: Harri Potter and the Sociopragmatics of Second Person
16.30-17.00	Deborah Arbes Expressing Plural in Patagonian Welsh
17.00-17.30	Samuel Kyle Jones Using the Welsh language as a measure of neural resistance to cognitive decline and Dementia
18.00-18.30	CONFERENCE CLOSING, ROOM C1